Business of the Week

Our business of the week is Historic Creations! Historic Creations is the force behind the Sanctuary Downtown and Star Tower. Their innovative designs, luxury interiors and residential amenities put them in a class by themselves. We are proud they have chosen Downtown Orlando for two of their awesome projects and look forward to even more! For more information on Historic Creations, their incredible team (including Steve Kodsi), and their projects, visit www.historiccreations.com.

Street Closure Information

There is updated street closure information on the City's website. Visit www.cityoforlando.net and scroll down until you see the link for the latest on Street Closure Information. Also, Orange Avenue will be closed on Saturday, January 28th, from 4 am Saturday to 4 am Sunday from South Street to Anderson Street for the WMMO Concert Series.

Welcome to FBC Mortgage LLC

We would like to welcome FBC Mortgage LLC to Downtown Orlando! While they are new to Downtown, they are veteran mortgage lenders with a staff of 20. They recently moved to 201 S. Orange Avenue. Congratulations and Welcome!

Downtown Media Arts Center (DMAC)

Sunday Eola Market

Join us for the Sunday Eola Market, formerly the Downtown Farmers Market. We have many new vendors at the market, which is now located near the intersection of Osceola Avenue and Central Blvd. See you there!

Golden Brick Awards 2005

It's that time of year again when we submit our applications for the Golden Brick Awards 2005. You can get an application at DOP's website at www.downtownorlandopartnership.com or by calling (407) 228-3891. The deadline for submission is Wednesday, March 1, 2006 at 5 pm.

CondoHQ and Olde Town Brokers

We have some amazing people downtown.....CondoHQ and Olde Town Brokers partnered for the 2nd year in a row to help fulfill the wishes of 200 children in need come true. Through New Hope for Kids, the lobbies of their offices were filled with gifts that brought a glimpse of happiness for seriously ill and grieving children. Awesome!

WMMO Concert Series Presents Credence Clearwater Revisited

It's time for another fantastic WMMO concert! This time, we are excited to have Credence Clearwater Revisited here in Downtown Orlando on Saturday, January 28th. The concert begins at 4 pm and will be located on Orange Avenue between South Street and Anderson Street. For more information, visit www.wmmo.com.

C-SPAN's New Book TV Bus

Head down to City Hall on Friday, January 27th between 11 am and 12:30 pm and check out C-SPAN's new Book TV Bus. This 45-foot long custom coach is a mobile television production studio that travels the country promoting Book TV's unique non-fiction book programming, which airs every weekend on C-SPAN2. Visitors to the Bus can tour the state-of-the-art studio set for an interactive demonstration of how Book TV programming is produced.

The History Center

If you haven't been to the History Center in a while, head over to see some of their new exhibits. There are a wide variety of displays and exhibits, something for everyone! Check out their website for exhibit details at www.thehistorycenter.org.

What's Up Downtown!

Join us on Thursday, February 2nd, for What's Up Downtown. Here's your chance to find out about exciting developments and activities happening in Downtown Orlando! What's Up Downtown will begin at 8:30 am in Conference Room R, 2nd Floor, City Hall, 400 S. Orange Avenue. There is limited parking in the parking lot across from City Hall on the southeast corner of South and Orange. You may also park in the Garage directly behind City Hall and we will be happy to validate your parking. Seating is limited due to room size, so please call Char at (407) 246-3753 to reserve your seat.
